Board of Directors

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) decides on the rewards and reimbursement for expenses related to meetings paid to the Chairman and members of the Board. The Nominating Committee of the Supervisory Board prepares a statement on the issue in question and the Supervisory Board then makes a proposal to the General Meeting.

In the term beginning at the spring 2018 AGM, the Chairman of the Board was paid a monthly fee of EUR 5,000 and each Board member a monthly fee of EUR 2,500. Of these fees, some 20 per cent was paid in the form of company's own shares and some 80 per cent in cash. The fees were paid in two instalments during the term: in June, a total of 4,705 Raisio plc's free shares were assigned as a fee for the Board work and a total of 7,110 free shares in December. The payment of December also contained a fee for the period of January-March 2019. Furthermore, the Chairman of the Board received EUR 800 for each meeting and EUR 400 for each teleconference, and members of the Board were paid EUR 400 for each meeting and EUR 200 for each teleconference. The same fees were paid for the meetings of committees elected by the Board among its members. Attendance fees were paid in cash. In addition, daily allowances for the meeting days were paid and travel expenses were reimbursed according to the company's travel rules.

In 2018, the Chairman of the Board, Ilkka Mäkelä, received a fee of EUR 60,000 of which some 20% was paid by assigning 3,939 free shares to him. He was also paid EUR 15,200 as attendance fees. In 2018, Erkki Haavisto, Kari Kauniskangas, Leena Niemistö and Ann-Christine Sundell were each paid a fee of EUR 30,000 of which some 20% was paid by assigning 1,969 free shares. Regarding the shares received by the Chairman and Board members as reward for their services, no rules or instructions have been given about the time of ownership or further disposal of the shares.

The Chairman and Board members are not covered by the company's share-based incentive schemes.

Supervisory Board

The AGM decides on the remuneration of the Chairman and members of the Supervisory Board as well as on their reimbursement for expenses incurred by the attendance of meetings.

The AGM held in spring 2018 decided to pay annual remuneration of EUR 12,000 to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and a fee of EUR 350 to the Chairman and members of the Supervisory Board for each meeting, in addition to which their travel expenses are compensated and they receive a daily allowance for meeting journeys according to the company's travel rules. The Meeting also decided to pay the Chairman of the Supervisory Board a fee of EUR 350 for each attended meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Supervisory Board consists of a minimum of 15 and a maximum of 25 members, whose term begins at the AGM at which the election takes place and ends at the end of the third AGM following the election. One-third of the members are replaced every year. The AGM held in spring 2018 confirmed the number of members in the Supervisory Board to be 25. Decision-making process in the remuneration of CEO and other executives

The Board's Remuneration Committee prepares, e.g., matters concerning the salaries and other financial benefits of CEO and his immediate subordinates, and the Board decides on these matters. Furthermore, the Committee prepares issues related to the management's incentive and reward schemes to be decided by the Board.

Share-based incentive and reward schemes may require an express decision from the General Meeting unless the Board has been authorised by the General Meeting to decide on them.

Main principles for the remuneration of CEO and other executives

Raisio's policy is to provide its personnel compensation that is competitive in each country and business area. The company regularly reviews market salaries and the development of incentive schemes, regarding both CEO and other executives, in order to maintain its competitiveness.

In 2018, Raisio had separate incentive schemes for CEO, management, middle management and other personnel. CEO's incentive scheme is based on the achievement of EBIT and net sales targets. For other management (Executive Committee), the incentive scheme is also based on the achievement of EBIT and net sales targets; the criterion is either the Group's EBIT or Division's EBIT and net sales. CEO's annual bonus is not more than 80% of the annual remuneration and for other management, it is a maximum of 50% of the annual remuneration. The achievement of bonus targets in the schemes of CEO and other executives is assessed after the financial year has completely ended, and a possible bonus is paid in cash by the end of March of the year following the financial year.

CEO and Executive Committee members are within the share-based incentive schemes of the Group's key personnel (the share-based incentive schemes 2016 - 2018, 2017 - 2019, 2018 - 2020 and 2019 - 2021). The schemes are described in more detailed below.

The pension of CEO and Management Team members is determined according to the Finnish employment pension scheme TyEL; they are all covered by the group pension insurance scheme of the Raisio Group Management.

A sum equivalent to 15 per cent of the CEO's and manager's basic annual salary (salary in money and taxation value of fringe benefits) is paid into the group pension insurance every year.

CEO

The contract stipulates that CEO has the right and obligation to retire at the age of 62.

The CEO's employment contract may be terminated by either the company or CEO with six months' notice. If the contract is terminated by the company, CEO is entitled to compensation corresponding to 12 months' pay, in addition to the pay for the period of notice. Upon termination of the CEO's contract, the company has the right to demand and the CEO is obliged to commit to a non-compete agreement of maximum of six months', for which the company is obliged to pay, at the highest, a sum corresponding to the CEO's salary of six months.

In 2018, Pekka Kuusniemi, who has served as Raisio plc's CEO since 1 November 2017, received a total of EUR 533,412.72 in salaries and fringe benefits for his services; no bonus payment was paid. CEO Kuusniemi received EUR 75,600.00 as supplementary pension insurance in 2018.

In 2018, Raisio plc's CEO received no bonus or compensation in the form of shares, options or other share-based benefits.

Executive Committee

Executive Committee members received EUR 2,044,593.10 as salaries in money and fringe benefits in 2018, as well as EUR 50,400.00 as bonuses for 2017. Executive Committee members received EUR 107,021 as supplementary pension insurance in 2018.

In April 2018, a total of 5.426 Raisio plc free shares were assigned to the Executive Committee members on the basis of the share-based incentive scheme 2015 – 2017; the value of the shares was EUR 19,350.20. In addition, the members received a cash payment of EUR 13,881.23. The cash payment is made to cover the recipient's taxes and fiscal fees arising from the share reward.

The retirement age of the Executive Committee members is 62 years.

The Executive Committee members' notice period is in conformity with the Employment Contracts Act, but always at least three months for both the company and Vice President. If the company terminates the contract, Vice President is entitled to compensation corresponding to nine months' pay, in addition to the pay for the notice period.
